

2009 AsiaNetwork Asian of the Year Awards

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS FROM COAST TO COAST

Join us at the AsiaNetwork Canada as we scour this great land for the most respected and admired Asian Canadians, along with all Canadians, in your community and beyond.

Whether an entrepreneur with tremendous business acumen, a volunteer who dedicates countless hours helping the less fortunate, a mentor to whom many go for advice, a Canadian who has made significant contributions to Asian-Canadian affairs, or an outstanding artist or athlete, we want to honour these individuals.

The awards will be presented on the Parliament Hill, by the Honourable Sheila Copps, the Award Selection Committee Chair; and recipients will be featured in the national AsiaNetwork Magazine.

Who is eligible?

There are five categories: Business /Public Service, Volunteerism, Lifetime Achievement, Asia-Canada Relations, and Arts/Sports. The award for Asia Canada Relations is open to all Canadians of any ethnic background, while the other four awards focus on Asian Canadians with one or two parents being Canadian of Asian descent.

How to Submit a Nomination:

Nominations are available online, by fax or by mail. Visit www.AsiaNetwork.ca for all nomination details.
