

Contents

- 7 Editorial / Letters to the Editor
 - 8 The Publisher's Comment
-

FEATURES

9 Go for the Gold

Canada is finally ready for the best Winter Olympics ever!

10 The Year of the Bull Market

While the U.S. economy limps along, you might want to invest in the East. Check out these hot Asian stocks.

12 Embassy News

A snapshot of Asian Embassy activities, achievements and opinions.

16 Canada/Japan: A Glance Across The Pacific

The Japanese Imperial Family returns to Canada and cements a new era of international cooperation.

26 MBA's-The Explosive Career Starter

Why and where Asians are mastering the art of global business. Clue: it's in Canada.

20

X - Marks the obligation

Sheila Copps dismisses the chatter around our “broken” democracy and lays it out plain: You’ve got to vote.

40

Hidden Jewel

The UNESCO recognizes its value, but visitors are far behind. Travel with Ken Gibson to the Hidden Jewel in China.

44

China Disrobed

Looking for love in the Middle Kingdom? Be careful: all the dating rules have changed.

46

God in the School Cafeteria

Many of us pick and choose elements from our God we agree with; but in a secular society, does this simply add to a cultural – and moral – relativism?

49

Tell the World

Eco-activist Severn Cullis Suzuki is hot on the heels of her famous father. But she appears more willing to forge unlikely ties. See where we caught up with her.

50

The Hermit Kingdom

North Korea’s capital is surprisingly cosmopolitan. For a few more surprises regarding the most enigmatic nation on Earth, we tracked down one of the West’s foremost experts to tell our readers about his experiences in the Hermit Kingdom.

52 2010

Asian of the Year Awards. Who will be the winner?

58 Ancient Healing Modern Dilemma

Knowing whether to opt for traditional medicine has many Westerners on pins and needles.

YuMing Ye in New Brunswick has some answers.

62 Conflict & Plight

Our dominance, yet dependence on nature is the tension explored in artist Zhenhe Wu's works. Mentor Jian Zhong provides an enlightening comment.

Also in this issue...

- 14 Film, music & book reviews.
- 23 Teasers:
 - Confessions of a Shanghai Girl.
 - CN Rail – The New Global Look.
 - Zoë Zeng's Healthy choices.
- 25 The Happiness Index.

AFGHANISTAN

Hidden Treasures

OCTOBER 23, 2009 – MARCH 28, 2010

CANADIAN MUSEUM
OF CIVILIZATION

MUSÉE CANADIEN
DES CIVILISATIONS

Organized in collaboration with the National Geographic Society

 NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC

100 Laurier Street, Gatineau • 1 800 555-5621 • www.civilization.ca

Canada